

NO. 30

OWINGSVILLE OUTLOOK

OUTLOOK PUBLISHING CO., OWINGSVILLE, KY.
$1 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Address all communications to The Outlook Publishing Co., c/o John W. Hoxaker, Owingsville, Ky.

THURSDAY, FEB. 5, 1903.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Circuit Court Clerk.
We are authorized to announce James L. Conner as a candidate for Circuit Clerk of Bath county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election, November, 1903.

We are authorized to announce James J. Mark as a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk of Bath county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

John D. Rockefeller proposes to spend seven millions to discover a cure for consumption. Coal oil can prove to be it.

The next U. S. Senate will contain many new members. The few old foxes fellows of long experience will run things the same as ever.

A Resolution has been introduced in the Kansas legislature to amend the State election law so as to exclude all negroes from voting. That's enough to make John Brown's ghost appear on the scene.

The hero of the Merrimack and merry smack had to take Hobson's choice at last by resigning from the Navy, the Naval Board being determined to retire him on half pay.
Capt. Hobson's reason given is that his eyes are in bad condition.

U. S. Senator Wellington, of Maryland, has introduced a bill to amend the Constitution by prohibiting any individual in the United States from owning more than ten million dollars' worth of property.
Uncle Russell Sage would call that pestiferous agitation.

A bill has been introduced in Congress to increase the annual salary of the President to $100,000.
As Presidents have been not only living high but saving big money out of the office the increase is not warranted from any standpoint.
Besides they needn't accept the office if they can do better.

Adonias has twenty-one sure votes and doubtless would give a hundred thousand each for the other six votes necessary to elect him U. S. Senator from Delaware.
The Republicans opposing him deserve only qualified credit, for they could defeat him by combining with the Democrats to elect a Republican for the short term. Adonias will finally reach the coveted place unless some such action is taken.

Great Britain, Germany and Italy want to buy the Venezuelan petroleum, which promises to bust up the negotiations in a row.
The other claimants, who have withheld the use of violence to collect their claims, naturally feel that they deserve an equal share of the Venezuelan oil.

Slate Valley.
The two-year-old baby of James Snodgrass and wife has bronchitis.
Mason Vase was up from Flat Creek last week trying to sell his farm.
Mrs. Ira Nester, a very old lady somewhere in the eighties, has passed away.

W. E. Atchison and wife, of Salt Lick, are visiting the family of Sam Shultz.

Harve Sexton moved into the old tollgate house lately vacated by Sid Tindler.

Joseph Toy, of near Sharpburg, visited the family of John K.
M. E. Church last Wednesday night on his way to Williams to attend school.

Cabe Snodgrass and wife have been visiting west of Slate Creek since Friday last week.

Joe Rudder, wife and children visited Mrs. Rudder's parents, Andrew Coker and wife, on Prickly Ash, from Saturday until Monday.

Oodessa.
The sick are all improving in this vicinity.

George Kerr bought 12 head of horses of Clay Hunt Friday for $65.
Ed Warren has about completed delivering the lumber for Dr. Jones' office.

J. S. Anderson sold a small pair of mules last week to Saunders Hoss, of Fleming Co., for $200.

John Steele, of Flat Creek, visited the uncle and aunt W. B. Poner and wife Saturday night and Sunday.

Dr. Isaac W. Jones left the first of last week to take up his studies for the third term at the Louisville Medical College.

Mrs. Jas. Danton and son, of Paris, were here Saturday to consult Dr. Jones in regard to a growth on Mrs. Danton's face.

Elzie Stone closed a term of writing school Saturday at the upper school house. & Mrs. W. B.
Pomer got the prize of free tuition for the greatest improvement on composition.

Upper Prickly Ash.
Almanza Stone bought a better call of New Shront for $10.
E. S. Hamilton and wife, of Roy's Run, visited relatives here one day last week.

Mrs. Dollie Lyter visited her aunt Mrs. Fannie Coyle on lower Prickly Ash last week.

Thomas Ryan and wife, of Repu-blicville, were guests of R. L.
Stone and wife Sunday.

E. S. Hamilton bought one Jersey cow and two short pearling bulls of Jeff and Wayne Donaldson for $60.

Martin Manley and wife, of lower Slate Creek, visited the former's parents, Joe Manley and wife, Saturday and Sunday.

The relatives and friends who were interested in the Cartmill graveyard and put up a new wire fence around it last week.

Mrs. Daniel Harper and granddaughters Misses Walter May and Elizabeth Ratliff visited relatives in Mt. Sterling last week.

Misses Fenton E. Shroat and Arizona Bristol, of near Nicholasville, came Saturday to visit relatives here and on Flat Creek.

Lickins Union.
The Sick—Alice Armstrong is poorly. Frank Johnson is sick.
M. P. Williams and wife went to Morehead last Friday to buy furniture for their new house.
The Lexington Oil Co. drilled in a well on Elzie Alley's farm last week; report a good showing.

Mrs. Cora Greenhaw, of Roshan Co., visited her parents, J. W. Hann and wife, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Stratton, the manager for the Kentucky Merchant Co., has smallpox at the office on Scott's Creek.

J. B. Kendall preached at the
M. E. Church last Wednesday night
on his way to Williams to attend school.

Oscar Willison and James Henderson drilled in an oil well on J.
W. Thomas' landing last Friday; report oil in paying quantity.

Irvin Johnson bought J. E.
Green's half interest in the store at Yale. The store now belongs to Howard Lewis and Irvin Johnson, two promising young men.

Olympia.
Lafe Smith left for Covington
Friday.

The infant child of Bill Kincaid is very ill.

P. N. Moore, of St. Louis, was in town several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Penix visited the family of J. W. Penix Sunday.

Bill Kincaid and wife, of Yale, are visiting Mrs. Soia Poix this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Costigan visited the family of Cole Jackson Sunday.

Bud Clark and wife left Friday for Covington to make their future home.

Burrill Jackson moved into the house recently vacated by Mrs. T.
J. Jackson.

Mrs. George Swarts and daughters left for their home in Breathitt Co. Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dug Smith visited relatives at Salt Lick and Olympia the past week.

Miss Pearl Landrum, of Salt Lick, was the pleasant guest of Miss Lizzie Warren last week.

Granico City.
Marion Hopkins is on the sick list.

T. R. Ratliff is in Louisville this week.

Mike Rigdon, of Owingsville, was here Friday.

J. E. Newman and Tommie Rigdon were in Flemingsburg Thursday.

Several from here attended the funeral of Miss Lela Davis at Hillboro Tuesday.

Low Cutright visited his cousin Marshall Davis, near Sunset, Saturday and Sunday.

Walter Gray, wife and daughter Mabel Clara visited W. S. Anderson and wife, at Wyoming, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss James Danton and son, of Paris, Ky., A. N. Danton and wife, of Owingsville, attended the funeral of the late J. T. Danton.

Fairview.
Mrs. Louise Anderson moved into her new house one day last week.
Nannie Hodding and Tilleda Whitten left Monday for Tim, Mo.
Rev. Ed Sanford filled the appointment of Rev. Palmer at Fairview Sunday.

Cliff Hendrix and tenants sold their crop of tobacco to Thos. G.
Daugherty at 26 to 40.

Miss Lattie Ishamel has been very low for about a week, but was reported some better Sunday.

William Letton and Miss Penot Woodard, daughter of Joel Woodard, were married at the residence of Turner Woodard Thursday eve.
Elder Anderson officiating. We join with their many friends in wishing much happiness.

Died, Sunday, Feb. 1st, a little daughter of John E. Grey, with fever, and Mr. Boston Vine, aged 83.
The cause of his death is not known. He leaves a wife and four girls to mourn his death.

Salt Lick.
Leo Suckler is in Exill Co. on business week.

Carl Williams has moved back to his old home at Spencer, Montgomery Co.

The oil drill on the old farm has resumed work after a shutdown of two weeks for repairs.

The foundation has been completed for the machine shops of the Standard Oil Co.

Misses Cora and Flora Gibbs, of Yale, passed through town Saturday en route to Farmers for a visit.

Mr. Lida Maybin is able to be up, after a severe spell of pneumonia. Mrs. Dr. Lewis is no better.

Miss Lillie Barnes returned Monday from an extended visit to her sister Mrs. F. H. Henley, at Kentucky, W. Va.

Born, Jan. 25th, at Seranton, to Alvin Argo and wife (see Miss Neptune News), a daughter—Lazel.

Prof. Rainey and wife, of Calletsburg, came Saturday afternoon to visit the former's parents, Rev.
H. C. Rainey and wife.

Miss Carolyn Bates, of Ironton, who has been visiting her sister in Ashland for some time, stopped over here Sunday en route home to see her father, who is seriously sick.

H. C. Herndon, Deputy U. S.
Collector, and Deputy Marshal Percy Jackson raided a still in Morgan county last week and destroyed about 1000 gallons of beer, together with the still; no one captured.

Farmers.
Uncle Charlie Kennedy is very poorly with rheumatism.

Licking river is rising rapidly today (Sunday). A good tide is anticipated.

George Jones, of Owingsville, passed through this place Saturday afternoon in his new horse on his way home.

Miss Eliza Maxey, of Steptone, after spending several days with relatives and friends here, returned home last Sunday.

The Rev. J. T. Danton, of Paris, Ky., was here Sunday.

Sherrburn.
Joe Knealy bought a mare of Trux Vics, of Flat Creek, for $100.25.
French, of Carlisle, bought all the tobacco in this neighborhood last week.

J. J. Smoot, son Henry and James Clined have gone South with a drove of horses.

Married, Jan. 27th, youngest daughter of Al Rogers, of Lick Branch, to the daughter of Tom Hawkins.

During the recent illness in Licking hollow that had in it 19 cattle that averaged 2 lbs. each.

Squire Rount held Court here Saturday: Docket—Commonwealth of Kentucky vs. Leo Johnson, disturbance religious worship.

Henry Dalley sold his half-interest in a house and lot at South Sherrburn for $150. He will move to Indiana the first of March.

D. D. Evans sold his crop of tobacco to French, of Carlisle, at $10 per hundred; $5, all Evans and tenant Shanks at $5, all around, same party.

Married, at Turner Woodard's, Jan. 22th, Wm. Littleton (uncle Tim) and Miss Fent Woodard, daughter of Joel Woodard. May they ever be happy.

Died, Jan. 29th, Ed Ratliff, of Berthel, of typhoid fever. He leaves a wife and two children and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

We extend our sympathy to the family. Your loss is great, we know, but if he reverts all things death all things well.

Sleepstone.
The sick at S. J. Boyd's are improving slowly. Mrs. Claude Wilson is better.

Miss Lizzie Conner, daughter of W. A. Conner, is visiting her uncle, Wm. Allington and family, at Thomson, Ky.

The youngsters had a happy time last Thursday night by the giving of a dance by John Alexander, Jr., and wife to them.

At the sale of Thos. Anderson's last Tuesday everything sold well, bids going as high as 60 and other things in proportion.

Mrs. W. B. Henry, who has been bedfast for several days, we are glad to say is able to sit up, and we hope will recover fast.

J. R. Conner, of this place, has been to Mr. Galt's and will move to his farm near Thomson's Station this week to work the coming crops.

Thos. Garrett was on Salt Well Sunday, and, as usual, the creek got swag up. Saw Tom, why and where is you make your visits so far apart to that neighborhood?

Miss Mary Greenwald, our clerk, who was home to see her folks for the past week, returned here Saturday evening, being brought back by the luckiest man, Bart Ray; he surely must feel happy.

Alexander Kerriek, son of Thos.
Kerriek, of Salt Well, and Miss Rosa, the charming daughter of J.
E. Kerriek, of this place, were married last Wednesday at Oving-ville. We and all wish them much joy and a prosperous life together, and

Sharpburg.
J. R. Triplett was in Mt. Sterling Wednesday on business.
Jack Scott sold to Robt. Woodard a work horse for $65.
W. E. Bean, of near Mt. Sterling, was here trading Wednesday.

John R. Sharp and son James were here Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Hord Sharp and Mrs. H. C.
Sturpless were in Mt. Sterling Wednesday.

Robert Shultz, of lower Flat Creek, visited Mrs. Malinda Heath Tuesday.

Hon. Ruben Guggel, of Oving-ville, was here Wednesday on law business.

Mary Grissner, one of our best colored women, was buried near town Tuesday.

Breck Gay, of Clark county, was here Friday delivering some mules to parties near town.

J. R. Triplett and wife visited the family of Daniel Thompson, near Morehead, Thursday and Friday.

Wm. F. Talbot, formerly of Morehead, now of Cincinnati, was on his way to Mt. Sterling.

We received last week an invitation to the graduation of W. Ben Triplett at Kinkaid, Mo., Jan. 28.
He is now a full-fledged Osteopath.

Youngstown, Ohio, has an ordinance against keeping chickens in town. We can't keep them here Sharpburg without any ordinance against it.

Thomas Flora and family moved last Sunday from the house he had rented of Mrs. Heath to Carlisle, Sunday seems to be a favorite day for moving here.

Stoops.
J. B. Carter is on the sick list.
Steward Malley is quite sick.
Corn is selling at $2.25 per bush in the field.

Tobacco-buyers made a rush in this vicinity last week.

Robt. S. Smith returned Wednesday from Hillsboro, Ohio.

Thos. Warner bought a horse from Thos. McLean for $60.

James Kendall, of Aaron's Run, was in this vicinity Sunday.

A Mr. Ellis, of Paris, was here last week looking at tobacco.

Josiah Coons is able to be out again, after several days' sickness.

A piece of work is half done when you know thoroughly how to do it.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Taul visited her son Leo Taul, at Camargo, last week.

A man is known by the company he keeps, a woman by the company she keeps.

Miss Annie Le Ratliff, of Berthel, is visiting her sister Mrs. Chas.
Gossett.

We have several hundred thousand of mud to spare at the present.

Mr. Ellis, of Paris, was here last week looking at tobacco.

Mr. Ellis, of Paris, was here
last week looking at tobacco.

Mr. Ellis, of Paris, was here
last week looking at tobacco.

Mr. Ellis, of Paris, was here
last week looking at tobacco.

Mr. Ellis, of Paris, was here
last week looking at tobacco.

Mr. Ellis, of Paris, was here
last week looking at tobacco.

Mr. Ellis, of Paris, was here
last week looking at tobacco.

R. S. Smith began Saturday au- tioning off his stock of merchandise. He is going to remove to South Bloomfield, Ohio, March 1st.
No doubt Carrie Nelson's design for establishing a home for the wives of drunks will be greatly appreciated by the drunks. It will enable them to economize and put all their money in whiskey.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Thompson gave a party Wednesday night in honor of their guests, Misses Kate Warner and Daisy Armstrong, of Olive Hill. It was one of the nicest affairs of the season and every one enjoyed themselves.

Robert S. Smith received a telegram Thursday announcing the death of his infant daughter, Margaret Patterson at Hillsboro, Ohio.
The many friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Smith express their heartfelt sympathy in their aid and bereavement.

Joe Hild bought of J. M. Big-staff and tenants the following crops of tobacco: Jas. Alexander's 90; Tom McLean's 30; Thos. Robertson's 8 and 30; Sam Williams' 8 and 30; Thos. McLean's 8 and 30; Elphig Grove's 75 and 30; Richard Wilde 7 and 30; of Young & Kissick 20 crops at 80; of Joe Kissick 20 crops at 75 and 30. Thos. Robertson, of Berthel, bought Mark Pergerson's crop at 60. Waller Sharp, of Sharpburg, bought Hyrd & Fassett's crop at 60.

"I'm so glad to see you," she exclaimed. "Have you been in New York long?"

"No, I still have a dollar and a half left."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Mrs. Wags—"I understand that drinking is one of your husband's failings." Mrs. Jagg—"You have been misinformed. It is his most pronounced success."—Chicago Daily News.

In South America—Tourist:
"You certainly do have a great many insurrections." Native:
"Yes; our insurrections are as frequent as your strikes, but fortunately, not as serious."—Puck.

"There is a train of thought passing through my head at this moment," said the self-appointed lecturer. "That's right," said a voice from the gallery: "You have wheels in your head."—Chicago News.

"I wish I belonged to a golf club." "It isn't necessary." "It isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five miles in leisurely fashion and every twenty or thirty yards hit the pavement a hard whack with your can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Evening Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf
club." "It isn't necessary." "It
isn't?" "Oh, no. Just walk five
miles in leisurely fashion and every
twenty or thirty yards hit the
pavement a hard whack with your
can and swear."—Chicago Even-
ing Post.

"I wish I belonged to a golf